tied her up. He turned on the buzz saw. Uh-uh, and then along came Jones, tall, thin Jones, slow walking Jones, slow talking Jones. Along came long, lean, lanky Jones. Now, Senator Jones, I want to ask you the question. Somebody said something about we were looking at the wrong committee amendments, is that true?

SENATOR JONES: Yes.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Where will we get a copy of the actual committee amendments that you want us to look at?

SENATOR JONES: It should be on your screen, but I, I don't know. I could get a copy for everybody, I should.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: But the one that is in the bill book is not the correct one, is that true?

SENATOR JONES: That's right.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Okay. Well, Senator Suttle is going to help me get the one that we should be looking at, but I wanted to be sure that I wasn't just being told that by way of a joke. However, I would like to ask you a question while that's coming up. Okay. Senator Jones, I was told that you'd like to withdraw this mistaken one first, so I will just not talk on this. And then when the real amendment comes up, that's when I'll turn on my light.

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN PRESIDING

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: Senator Wehrbein. Senator, you're recognized to speak.

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: I will pass since we got a different amendment.

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: Senator Bromm, you are recognized to close on the committee amendments.

SENATOR BROMM: I'd just like to reiterate, the only true thing I said previously was that the committee amendments would become the bill. Disregard everything else and vote red. We do not
